

Welcome To DTS Disability Tax Services

At DTS we have developed unique analysis systems in the area of determining potential and pre-existing eligibility for the disability tax credit certificate as determined by the Canada Revenue Agency. These include applications related to children with non-visible disabilities with a special focus on ADHD, learning disabilities and other cognitive disorders. We use our experience to recover tax credits and benefits most Canadians are unaware of, and the rewards can be substantial. Learning Disabilities Division

Financial health for the disabled